No historical traffic information available at this time. Conditions in the Glacier Point corridor will likely be similar to Yosemite Valley and Wawona.
Glacier Point: Visitors can anticipate moderate to heavy traffic, especially on Saturday and Sunday between 11am and 1pm. Expect some short delays and congestion over the weekend on the Glacier Point Road and vicinity. Remember to bring your camera to capture some of most panoramic and beautiful vistas in the world including views of Yosemite Valley.

* Predicted traffic ratings are subject to a variety of influences. These predictions may vary widely as a result of weather changes, road construction, visitor use management actions, when holidays fall during the week, vehicle accidents, etcetera.
